

Leader In Adult Care

Level 5

21 Months Total Programme Length

Apprenticeship Overview

Leaders in adult care are at the forefront of managing community or residential care services, demonstrating leadership which impacts every layer of their teams and services. They work to ensure that the delivery of care is safe, effective, caring, responsive, and well-led, addressing the needs of individuals facing a diverse range of challenges. This role demands a strong commitment to regulatory compliance and nurturing a culture which fosters continuous improvement in care standards and professional development.

This apprenticeship programme is designed to equip current care sector staff with the skills and confidence required to excel within this leadership role. The apprenticeship journey has been tailored to provide the apprentice with expertise in leadership within the care setting, and prepare them for the wide variety of challenges they face within their roles.
