

Healthcare Science Associate

Level 4

24 Months Total Programme
Length

Apprenticeship Overview

Healthcare science associates are pivotal to the healthcare science workforce, bridging the gap between healthcare science practitioners and clinical scientists. They perform a diverse range of diagnostic, therapeutic, and monitoring activities, ensuring expert patient care from the beginning to the end of life.

This apprenticeship programme is tailored to build upon the existing skills of staff members within these roles. Apprentices will develop a high level of proficiency in a variety of technical and scientific procedures, equipping associates with the skills to contribute effectively within their team.

Upon Successful Completion

- Healthcare Science Assistant Apprenticeship: Pass, Merit or Distinction
- Level 4 Diploma in Healthcare Science
- English and maths (As agreed, flexibilities are available)

Progression Opportunities

- The Bridging Programme (Providing UCAS points)
