

Title: Trainer Of The Oliver McGowan Mandatory Training

Background

Sarah Painter is an accomplished Clinical Health IQA and skills and development coach with extensive experience in healthcare and education. Known for her dedication to quality care and education, she has significantly contributed to the development of learners and professionals in the healthcare sector. Her expertise spans clinical practice, work-based learning, and quality assurance, making her a versatile and effective leader. Sarah's commitment to continuous improvement and professional development is reflected in her achievements, including the Lifetime Learner Achievement Award and the prestigious Matt Pushenon Coach of the Year Award (2022/2023).

Attributes

Sarah is a quality-focused, self-driven professional with a passion for inclusive and diverse learning opportunities. She excels in building relationships, mentoring others, and continuously improving her skill set. Her proactive approach and dedication make her a valuable asset to Dynamic Training.

Find Out More About The Training